Discover Your Family in School Yearbooks

Audience Question:

Q: As not everyone is from the US, pls state which age group each grade represents. Thx

A: 12th grade = about 17-18 yr olds

Audience Question:

Q: Several years ago, I contacted an historical society in Mt Pleasant, PA. I was looking for a picture of my mother from her high school. They located one and said they would send me a copy. A week later I got the entire yearbook! There was a note inside that said they had two copies and I would enjoy going thru the book. I found a lot of information on my mother with many photos. A great gift!!!

A: Great experience!

Audience Question:

Q: Where can we find these yearbooks?

A: I think he's going to talk about this soon.

Audience Question:

Q: Look for FAN (friends, associates, and neighbors) club photos. Also, family lived in clusters resulting in cousins in your school.

A: Good thoughts

Audience Question:

Q: I know my yearbook provided addresses of Seniors.

A: Cool!

Audience Question:

Q: I was lucky enough to find a yearbook that my mother had actually signed with her nickname under her picture.

A: Congrats!

Audience Question:

Q: I've been trying to find the owner of a watch I found on the ground while attending BYU. But, it wasn't on BYU property. The name on the back is Barbara Lind. The high school initials are WPHS and year is 1952. I think it is the parent of a student possibly. It also has the notation Goldwaters Award. I have yet to find a high school with those initials who gave out that award many years ago. I wonder is this high school still exists.

A: Good luck!
