Legacy 9 Unlocked (part 6) Adding a Death Certificate by Geoff Rasmussen

Audience Question:

Q: This has to be the best membership I have had.

A: Thank you!

Audience Question:

Q: 1,000 hours is almost 42 days.

A: Did you factor sleep in there? :)

Audience Question:

Q: Agree. Not only the best but also the most economical for what is included.

A: It is pretty reasonable.

Audience Question:

Q: It was the best Christmas present I bought myself

A: :)

Audience Question:

Q: No, sleep not factored in. :D

A: I like my sleep! :)

Audience Question:

Q: Who needs sleep when you can do genealogy!!!

A: :)

Marian Pierre-Louis (to All - Entire Audience): 2:08 PM: Italian Genealogical Group (IGG) - <http://www.italiangen.org/>

Audience Question:

Q: I have an address in my family at 196 Macon Street on a marriage certificate in 1896. Our ancestors might have been neighbors!

A: Yes could be!

Audience Question:

Q: thank you for that tip, I needed that!

A: :)

Audience Question:

Q: Saving the clipboard. Did not know that. Thanks,

A: :)

Audience Question:

Q: LOVE the adlibs :)

A: :)

Audience Question:

Q: click here to go to the overrides tab - bottom right

A: ...

Audience Question:

Q: I have become a huge fan of the source clipboard.

A: Me too.

Audience Question:

Q: Maybe he was one of those who went back and forth to the mother country for a while.

A: That seems to be what Geoff is thinking too!

Audience Question:

Q: Maybe that is how long he has been a citizen of the U.S.

A: Could be

Audience Question:

Q: I've seen somewhere (maybe the Legacy group on Facebook) to use [—?—] for an unknown surname.

A: Yeah, I think Michele does that.

Audience Question:

Q: I always use Unknown so I can later use the Index to find anyone needing more research.

A: ...

Audience Question:

Q: That is awesome! I have been trying to add in Cause of Death and wondered why it didn't show on everyone. Geez

A: :)

Audience Question:

Q: I could have used that cut and paste last night! That will save so much time later

A: :)

Audience Question:

Q: May also have family members in the same cemetery.

A: Good point!

Audience Question:

Q: Cliffhanger!

A: :)

Audience Question:

Q: your webinars are phenomenal! I tend to be a visual learner, so this is just what I need to learn Legacy

A: :)

Audience Question:

Q: I sure wish I haven't missed so many of the webinars -- Geoff is so awesome and great teacher.

A: :)

Audience Question:

Q: What is today's coupon code? Thanks!

A: unlocked6

Audience Question:

Q: Would love to have you sitting by my side while entering information, but using the book has been very helpful! But there are times when you just need someone to show the step that was missed.

A: :)

Audience Question:

Q: Archives of Ontario for this time period

A: ...

Audience Question:

Q: Looks like the page header has a certificate number.

A: ...

Audience Question:

Q: Would love if the master source page background color was different from the detail page background. (I work better with color.)

A: Great idea. Send the suggestion to support@legacyfamilytree.com

Audience Question:

Q: I love to see you discover things live.

A: :)

Marian Pierre-Louis (to All - Entire Audience): 3:28 PM: Get 24/7 Legacy help in the Legacy Facebook group! <https://www.facebook.com/groups/LegacyUserGroup/>

Audience Question:

Q: the Legacy User Group (LUG) actually just had a thread about how different people deal with burial locations, e.g., some include the cemetery name in the location field, whereas others do as Geoff has and include the city, county, etc., in the location field and add the cemetery under the plus sign.

A: ...

Audience Question:

Q: Would yesterday's webinars also be under your name?

A: No, they will be under the speakers' names: Cyndi Ingle, Maurice Gleason and one other
