Google Photos one photo app to rule them all

Audience Question:

Q: Is 35mm still used at all? I still have my camera using film.

A: Anyone out there still use 35mm?

Geoff Rasmussen (to All - Entire Audience): 2:10 PM: "Buckle Up!" :)

Geoff Rasmussen (to All - Entire Audience): 2:11 PM: Gallery Go

Audience Question:

Q: Sounds like this web is a GOOD reason to be a member.

A: Absolutely!

Audience Question:

Q: Does "high quality" degrade your original?

A: Nope

Audience Question:

Q: Do you store photos as JPEG or TIFF?

A: jpg

Audience Question:

Q: Technically, it would degrade the original photo. It isn't saving as lossless format.

A: It's making a copy of the original and uploading that copy, so it shouldn't do anything to your original.

Audience Question:

Q: can you drag and select and then make cherry picks for exclusion from the group

A: yes

Audience Question:

Q: Can we make our own albums?

A: yes

Audience Question:

Q: Sounds to me like you should still be saving your photos to another source if you want to keep the original format

A: Right, still have the originals on your computer, and backed up in various places.

Audience Question:

Q: Why not a demo here?

A: I think he will, however, demo-ing from a mobile device is pretty tricky...

Audience Question:

Q: Geoff- Is there a Webinar on using a hard drive to store your pics and/or documents?

A: https://familytreewebinars.com/download.php?webinar\_id=66

Audience Question:

Q: What is the link for the google photos app?

A: photos.google.com

Audience Question:

Q: does it keep the original photo as well?

A: yes

Audience Question:

Q: does the assistant save the original too if you save a stylized suggestion?

A: yes

Audience Question:

Q: This tool is wonderful. Can't wait to use it!

A: :)

Audience Question:

Q: Definitely have to watch this again. My brain is getting over-stuffed!

A: :)

Audience Question:

Q: I have Google Photos on my iPhone and don't seem to have all the icons he has. Is he on his phone or on an app on his computer?

A: He's in his browser right now...

Audience Question:

Q: so if I really love the stylized photos, I suppose I would need to back them up to the external harddrive too?

A: Yes, you can then download the photo.

Geoff Rasmussen (to All - Entire Audience): 2:35 PM: "I don't know anyone who doesn't think that's cool!" :)

Audience Question:

Q: Is there a Syllabus?

A: The syllabus is available at https://familytreewebinars.com/webinar\_details.php?webinar\_id=915 by clicking on the orange Syllabus button.

Audience Question:

Q: He's going to hate you when he grows up :-)

A: :)

Audience Question:

Q: Can you put text on the photos of where and when?

A: yes

Audience Question:

Q: Is there also a photo app for your computer/laptop or is it only for your cell phone?

A: App for mobile, otherwise go to photos.google.com

Audience Question:

Q: When you share an album, can people see your other albums or only the album you shared?

A: Just the album you share with them.

Audience Question:

Q: You only have to ID someone once?

A: yes

Audience Question:

Q: Can one photo be added to multiple albums?

A: yes

Audience Question:

Q: When he drags photos in, where were they originally? On his computer?

A: yes

Audience Question:

Q: People search: Can you do and/or search for multiple people?

A: yes

Audience Question:

Q: do photos need to be labelled to find under a place search

A: No, it looks at the lat/long coordinates that your phone adds to the pic
