

LORENZO D. BROWN

Lorenzo D. Brown,, the son of Nahen R. and Anna Brown, was born in Warren County, Pennsylvania, in the year 1842, and passed away at his home in Fairfield, Monday, July 18th.

Mr. Brown moved to Minnesota with his parents when he was thirteen years of age.

He enlisted at Minneapolis for the war of the Rebellion in the fall of 1861 and re-enlisted on the 6th day of March 1862 as a private in Capt. James Post's, Company 7., 149th. Pennsylvania Infantry, and was discharged the 24th of June, 1865 at Elmira, New York.

The deceased leaves to mourn his departure, five children: Wm. H. Brown of Fairfield; Mrs. Clara Manley, Tacoma, Wash.; Mrs. Mabel Bowman, Fairfield, Nebraska; Robert Brown, Hastings, Nebraska; and Mrs. Laura Watts, Champion, Nebraska.

Besides the children, he leaves two brothers and three sisters surviving: Frank Brown, Ferndale, Wash.; Albert Brown, Marysville, Wash.; Mrs. Maggie Shirley, San Jose, California; Mrs. Rhoda Kinney, Olympia, Wash., and Mrs. Amy Shirley, Cleveland, Oklahoma.

Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon at the Methodist Church, with Rev. Irvin McMurray in charge, and burial was made in the beautiful Fairfield Cemetery.
