

Chat Log 19 Feb 2019
Applying Evidence to Genealogical Research Questions

Audience Question:

Q: Pre-order link for Genealogy Standards 2nd edition: https://smile.amazon.com/Genealogy-Standards-Second-Certification-Genealogists/dp/168442352X/ref=sr_1_fkmrnull_1?keywords=genealogy+standards+second+edition&qid=1550624616&s=gateway&sr=8-1-fkmrnull

A: Thank you, Matt

Audience Question:

Q: Can anyone subscribe to the BCG newsletter?

A: Yes.

Audience Question:

Q: Hi from Lancaster, PA

A: Hello!

Audience Question:

Q: Hi, from warm, but rainy Texas

A: Welcome...

Audience Question:

Q: where will I find the syllabus?

A: There is a link near the bottom of your webinar control panel.

Audience Question:

Q: Is it available now or at the end of the webinar?

A: It's available now.

Audience Question:

Q: do you document negative sources to avoid searching the same material over and over again?

A: Yes, definitely.

Audience Question:

Q: HELLO FROM BOGOTA, COLOMBIA!

A: Thanks for joining us!

Audience Question:

Q: I have had to miss some of this semiar, I see below that it is being recorded. Can we listen to it at another time and if so where can we find it? Thank you so much

A: Yes, the recording will be available at www.familytreewebinars.com/BCG for free for the first week.

Audience Question:

Q: Hi from Seattle!

A: Hello!

Audience Question:

Q: <https://www.ngsgenealogy.org/ngsq/>

A: Thanks!

Audience Question:

Q: Where can we read NGSQ ?

A: Go to www.ngsgenealogy.org. But also many libraries subscribe and have back issues available.