

Chat Log 18 Sep 2018
Using Lists to Find Proof

Audience Question:

Q: FAN Club! Love it!

A: FAN club is the key!

Audience Question:

Q: I have a list from the papers of all attendees at my wifes Great grand fathers funeral.

A: That's some good information about his FAN Club!

Audience Question:

Q: I have been finding so much informations in Newspapers. I was surprised to see all the property descriptions which help with property next too my ancestors.

A: They are a great resource.

Audience Question:

Q: I was able to confirm when my great-aunt's divorce was finalized by finding a list of approved divorces in the local Pittsburgh newspaper.

A: They are great for finding birth and death information, especially if they lived in an area that did not create civil records.

Audience Question:

Q: Sorry, but I have to leave you early.

A: You can always watch later at www.familytreewebinars.com.

Audience Question:

Q: How do I get a syllabus?

A: There is a link at the bottom of your control panel.

Audience Question:

Q: I've asked this 2x before but how do I find the syllabus/handouts.

A: There is a link at the bottom of your control panel.

Audience Question:

Q: Helen Smith says Salvation Army Heritage Archives

A: thanks

Audience Question:

Q: The Salvation Army National Archives and Research Center:

<https://www.loc.gov/rr/main/religion/sa.html>

A: ...