

Chat Log 30 Nov 2017
Find Your Immigrant Ancestors AND their Relatives in the New York Passenger Arrival Records by Mike Mansfield

Audience Question:

Q: SUPER VISUALS!!

A: Agree, I've never seen it displayed in such a way

Geoff Rasmussen (to All - Entire Audience): 2:22 PM: See webinar, "Annie Moore of Ellis Island - A Case of Historical Identity Theft" at https://familytreewebinars.com/download.php?webinar_id=73

Audience Question:

Q: Wow!

A: Agree!

Audience Question:

Q: Ahhh - phone call came in just as he started the images of records! Good thing I can watch this again!!

A: Yep, I'll have the recording online within about an hour of the webinar's conclusion.

Audience Question:

Q: Does this mean that MyHeritage has access to Ellis Island records?

A: Yes

Audience Question:

Q: Awesome! Will we be able to download the entire form?

A: Yep!

Audience Question:

Q: I was told that my grandfather came over on a cattle boat. I've yet to be able to find his entry records into the US. Any suggestions on how to find him?

A: You might look at the records of the other ports as well. Visit <https://familytreewebinars.com/immigration> for webinars that explain this.

Audience Question:

Q: To search My Heritage for these records - you have to have a subscription?

A: I think so, but I'll ask him the Q/A.

Audience Question:

Q: Does Mike know of how and where to access Canadian immigration records? Family left No. Ireland around 1850 and went to Canada. Have not been able to track them until they arrived in US in 1865. Thank you.

A: We have an entire webinar on this topic at https://familytreewebinars.com/download.php?webinar_id=51

Audience Question:

Q: WOW! That info is worth the cost of a subscription!

A: Right, that is incredible. Well done Mike!

Audience Question:

Q: The additional names are terrific in helping sort out folks!

A: agree

Audience Question:

Q: With all of us being from immigrants, it is awesome that this has been set out like this. THANK YOU!

A: :)

Audience Question:

Q: Cool webinar. I learned a lot! Thanks.

A: Great!

Audience Question:

Q: Could you please repeat where the webinar will be?

A: www.familytreewebinars.com

Audience Question:

Q: Legacy is better than sliced bread.

A: :)

Audience Question:

Q: Article by Marian Smith on manifest markings including lined out entries

<https://www.jewishgen.org/infofiles/manifests/>

A: Thanks!

Audience Question:

Q: Births and deaths could/probably are at the end of the lists

A: Thanks!

Audience Question:

Q: Great presentation - will check out My Heritage today.

A: Great!

Audience Question:

Q: see also : <http://www.immigrantships.net/>

A: Thanks!

Audience Question:

Q: The Manifests were produced in the steamship company offices in the destination ports. Check the end of the manifest for births on the voyage.

A: Thanks!