

Chat Log 9 Jun 2017 The Increasing Need for Foreign Language Indexing with Devin Ashby

Marian Pierre-Louis (to All - Entire Audience): 2:03 PM: You can find all of Devin's free Legacy webinars here: <https://familytreewebinars.com/devinashby>

Audience Question:

Q: Devin is coming in Loud and Clear!

A: Excellent!

Audience Question:

Q: learning to index can also help you find info for documents you need translated. I told the one from Italy and was able to find some info I needed, aka keywords, it helped with my brick wall.

A: Wonderful!

Audience Question:

Q: I use the map almost everytime I go to Familysearch instead of just by name

A: Me too.

Audience Question:

Q: Thanks for this, didn't realise I could narrow it this way

A: :)

Audience Question:

Q: Shoot! I have to leave now. My sister broke down and needs a ride. :(

A: It is being recorded. You'll be able to watch it later.

Marian Pierre-Louis (to All - Entire Audience): 2:29 PM: www.familysearch.org

Audience Question:

Q: Why can't I seem to be able to get the syllabus for the class today? Thanks

A: In lieu of a syllabus Devin has submitted these two links:

<https://familysearch.org/blog/en/joan-smiling-ingrid-frowning-2/>

<https://familysearch.org/languageindexing>

Audience Question:

Q: Difference between looking at film and browsing images from home? At home you can do it any time of day or night. Do not have to wait until Center is open.

A: Yes! It's much more convenient.

Audience Question:

Q: My family

A: :)

Audience Question:

Q: Hey, that's my Merrills in that paper

A: I have Merrills too! :)

Audience Question:

Q: It would be great if a person could help build an index when they looked at Just Images

A: Interesting idea.

Audience Question:

Q: How did he get to just the online in the familysearch catalog?

A: It was an optin at the top of the page

Marian Pierre-Louis (to All - Entire Audience): 2:34 PM: <http://familysearch.org/wiki>

Audience Question:

Q: I have bad luck with the Wiki, please improve it!

A: The wiki is developed by volunteers like you and me. If you find a page without a lot of information, consider adding to it.

Audience Question:

Q: a great site to check from search is. this one

www.familysearch.org/locations/locations/libaray_class_schedule this is a place where you can find all of the churches webinars.

A: thank you!

Audience Question:

Q: how do you get the Syllabus from Webinars in the past?

A: Members can access the handouts from the individual webinar pages on the website. So you would search for the webinar you are interested in and then you'll see a link to the handout underneath the video player.

Audience Question:

Q: Who decides what informaiton gets indexed?

A: I would imagine FamilySearch does.

Audience Question:

Q: Nope the church lets onwers decide what gets indexed.

A: Sorry did you mean what gets indexed on a page (my interpretation of what you said since he's indexing). Or are you talking about who chooses which records/microfilms get added to the indexing project?

Marian Pierre-Louis (to All - Entire Audience): 2:53 PM: If your question doesn't get answered right away that means I have reserved it to ask Devin at the end.

Marian Pierre-Louis (to All - Entire Audience): 3:04 PM: Share batch indexing on Facebook
