NEHGS Who We Are What We Do and How We Can Help with Lindsay Fulton

Audience Question:

Q: I have dreamed of going to NEHGS and researching for days into weeks but so far just a dream. I know I have lots to see and do just a matter of getting there,. Someday, so I am excited about listening to this presentation and getting some great pointers to help me when I do go, Wondering if they have data bases that members can access online?

A: Yes they do, I'm sure we'll hear about it today.

Audience Question:

Q: Hi from Frankfort, Kentucky, Overcast and 82 degrees. Always happy to have a Webinar Wednesday.

A: Me too!

Audience Question:

Q: It's so amazing in this day of technology that we can all be listening to the same speaker at the same time and we are in all parts of the world!. Thank you Legacy for offering us these free webinars- really appreciate it.

A: Yes, it's great, isn't it?

Audience Question:

Q: Is there a syllabus?

A: Look for the yellow Syllabus button at

Audience Question:

Q: Hit record.

A: Thanks, I did. :)

Audience Question:

Q: I finally go from from west to east US. Just found some New England ancestors. This webinar is perfect timing for me. Webinar Membership is AWESOME!!!!

A: Great!!

Audience Question:

Q: Every ancestor line I have is almost exclusively in New England from the time they immigrated to the US onwards. I've only found 1 or 2 people in roughly every other generation that has left our little corner of the country!

A: Wow.
