Researching with Karen Clifford 3

Audience Question:

Q: Even my non-genealogy friends know that if they call me on Wednesdays between 1 and 3, I won't answer!

A: :)

Audience Question:

Q: I agree these webinars are a great value. I gladly pay for my yearly membership! I have learned so much from them. And love the new website! Hello from sunny California

A: :)

Geoff Rasmussen (to All - Entire Audience): 2:24 PM: Webinar about state census record:

Audience Question:

Q: Civil War Draft Registration Records, 1863-1865
<http://search.ancestry.com/search/db.aspx?dbid=1666>

A: Thanks for the link!

Geoff Rasmussen (to All - Entire Audience): 2:34 PM: An 1892 state census?!? How great is that!

Audience Question:

Q: wow

A: Right, yikes.

Audience Question:

Q: Is there a list of states and years of state census? That is great to know there's an 1892 state census in NY!

A: Here's my favorite book about state censuses:

<http://www.amazon.com/State-Census-Records-Smith-Lainhart/dp/0806313625>

Audience Question:

Q: Or, check FamilySearch wikis for state censuses

A: Here's the link: https://familysearch.org/learn/wiki/en/United_States_Census_State_Censuses

Audience Question:

Q: Suggestion for NY research: by law, each town or city must have a historian. Contacting a town/city historian may lead you to vital records or church records.

A: Good tip, thanks.

Audience Question:

Q: what do you use when searching censuses

A: I think first of FamilySearch.org and Ancestry.com

Audience Question:

Q: I have that book. It is by Ann S. Lainhart. Mine is old (published 1992). Don't know if it has been updated. Very good for finding states census information.

A: Thanks.
