Marian Pierre-Louis (to All - Entire Audience): 2:09 PM: Many public libraries in New England where I live have a local history room.

Audience Question:

Q: I'm guilty of just entering a name and seeing what pops up. In my defense, though, I discovered siblings of my great great grandma that way. LOL

A: Great!

Audience Question:

Q: http://www.dupinternational.org/dyn\_page.php?pageID=11,, this is a great place here in SLC

A: Thanks

Audience Question:

Q: Cincinnati Union Terminal is both an Amtrak train terminal and a Museum. It has a library in it. <https://www.cincymuseum.org/union-terminal/>

A: Cool!

A: Thanks

Audience Question:

Q: I have a lock of hair from my dad's first hair cut

A: Nice!

Audience Question:

Q: We found relatives pictures in the inherited family bible.

A: Great!

Audience Question:

Q: Is there an ethnic Irish Archive?

A: MyHeritage: 110 collections with 13,551,871 records in Ireland, Europe -

<https://www.myheritage.com/research/catalog?location=Ireland&s=282563811>

Audience Question:

Q: I was sent from Montana Historical society hand written letters from my great grandparents and my grandfathers brother and someone else sent me pics and another hand written letter from my grandfathers brother in older years

A: Awesome!

Audience Question:

Q: Address or birthday books have excellent information as well.

A: True!

Audience Question:

Q: Czechoslova Genealogical Society International great for current Czech Republic & Slovaia; also for Bavaria, former Czechoslovakia & northern Austro-Hungarian empire.

A: Thanks!

Audience Question:

Q: I could not find the handout. Can you put the link so I just click on it. Thank you!

A: Normally we don't have a handout/syllabus for MyHeritage series webinars but today we have one. Everyone can access it for free at <https://familytreewebinars.com/webinar/myheritage-your-personal-genealogy-archive/> Look to the right of the orange register button and click where it says syllabus.

Audience Question:

Q: Jewish Gen is a veritable goldmine for research on Jewish families and communities. jewishgen.org

A: Thanks!

Audience Question:

Q: I first heard about The HARGROVE Family Study @ 2005-2006. It's an 800 + page collection of family records. I borrowed that book by ILL @ 2010. 2009-2012 Family Search has it digitized in their catalog.

A: Thanks

Audience Question:

Q: I found my 3x great-grandmother's obit in a Pennsylvania newspaper on MyHeritage. I had an obit from a paper on another site, but the one on MH is the ONLY one that LISTED HER 3 SISTERS!

A: Great! I find loads of stuff in the MyHeritage newspaper database!

Audience Question:

Q: I have a photo of my gg grandma and daughter but haven't located exactly where it was taken

A: You need help from a photo detective!

Audience Question:

Q: One tree I created in myheritage that was not related to me got connected to me by mistake trying to fix it.

A: Oh bummer

Audience Question:

Q: Must verify family trees below adding other family branches.

A: So true

Audience Question:

Q: Wow! This is wonderful! Just love Melissa!

A: Melissa is a great speaker!

Audience Question:

Q: how much of this can you do without a paid subscription?

A: This might help. MyHeritage for Free: 10 Tips for Using It Without a Subscription:
<https://familytreemagazine.com/websites/myheritage-for-free/>

Audience Question:

Q: Is there no way to privatize living people on your tree?

A: What are the privacy options for my family site?

<https://faq.myheritage.com/en/article/what-are-the-privacy-options-for-my-family-site#:~:text=Family%20sites%20at%20MyHeritage.com,first%20names%20and%20email%20addresses.> "Family sites at MyHeritage.com are automatically protected with privacy settings that prevent guests (non-members) from viewing sensitive information about living family members in family trees, such as first names and email addresses. Audience Question:

Q: my problem with myheritage is that they don't have a place, similar to the shoebox on ancestry.com, to store a record that you found that you are not sure if/or how it fits into your tree.

A: Interesting

Audience Question:

Q: I have a problem with matches: when you accept a certain match and either copy specific information or not, the next thing is a whole bunch of relatives for which you cannot accept individuals; it is the bunch or nothing. Any advice?

A: This free webinar will help -

Audience Question:

Q: in older houses you might find old newspapers used as insulation.

A: Probably not great reading material though!

Audience Question:

Q: Great newspapers at MyHeritage!

A: I agree!

Audience Question:

Q: Hello again after several months of my absence. Along the lines of previous webinars, will today's presentation be available for viewing again within the next week?

A: Yes, this webinar's replay will remain free since it's a MyHeritage webinar

Audience Question:

Q: Love the Newspaper category!!

A: :)

Audience Question:

Q: If I hadn't read the whole page of a 3xg grandfather I never would have seen the dedication from the fire department in a bottom corner off to the side of his lengthy obit (1879 paper)

A: Cool
