

Chat log 14 Feb 2023
Family Statistics on MyHeritage by Uri Gonen

Audience Question:

Q: this is so cool

A: Love all the ways to look at the info in the tree!

Audience Question:

Q: Is there a handout?

A: No, typically we don't have handouts for the MyHeritage webinars.

Audience Question:

Q: Counting the generations back sounds like a great way to begin looking through a generation to find members of the military from various wars!

A: I can think of so many ways to use this. It's terrific!

Audience Question:

Q: Where on the home page is the "Relationship" tab? [I was late] Nancy

A: Hover over home then choose Family Statistics, then choose Relationships

Marian Pierre-Louis (to All - Entire Audience): 2:28 PM: Family Tree Tab >> Pedigree Map to click through to people from specific places

Marian Pierre-Louis (to All - Entire Audience): 2:29 PM: When you click on the Family Tree tab you might need to click the more button on the bottom to see Pedigree Map

Audience Question:

Q: Relationships does not show up on MyHeritage site

A: Do you see Family Statistics when you hover over the Home button? Start there. After you will see relationships

Audience Question:

Q: Overview, Places, Ages, Births, Marriages, Children and Divorces all appear on the Family Statistics page, but not the category Relationships!

A: On his screen this is a <<New>> button above relationships. Maybe it hasn't been released everywhere yet.

Audience Question:

Q: one of mine says married 11 x

A: Wow!

Audience Question:

Q: Relationships is marked 'new' on my page

A: Mine too

Audience Question:

Q: lol 39 of mine were married in their teens

A: Fun to know!

Audience Question:

Q: lol one of mine are married for 201 yr

A: LOL

Audience Question:

Q: Really enjoying the statistics tool. Helpful, interesting, and fun.

A: Me too!

Audience Question:

Q: Love the consistency checker

A: Yes, helpful!

Audience Question:

Q: One of the few places I use icons is for boys or girls who died before adulthood. Powerful visual impact when several children are lost; cries out for a writing of that family's story.

A: Interesting

Marian Pierre-Louis (to All - Entire Audience): 3:05 PM:

<https://familytreewebinars.com/webinar/printing-charts-and-books-on-myheritage/>